

Policy for Issuance and Conduct of Credit Cards

Background:

HDFC Bank Limited ("Bank") as part of its operations issues Credit Cards (as hereinafter defined) and is a member of various card networks for issuance of Credit Cards including Visa, MasterCard, Diners and Rupay. The Bank also enters into co-branding arrangements, from time to time, which contemplate the issuance of Co-Branded Credit Cards (as hereinafter defined). The Bank started the credit cards business in November 2001.

Today, the Bank is a leading player in terms of issuance, portfolio size and quality and it has leveraged the existing HDFC Bank liability and asset customers for sourcing credit cards and also through open market sourcing including arrangements under Co-branded Credit Cards. Business growth, profitability and asset quality have been the cornerstones of its strategy across all the card products. Bank currently issues credit card under individual credit card, corporate credit card and business credit card (including charge cards).

The issuance and conduct of credit card by the Bank is governed by the Regulatory Guidelines issued by RBI. In terms of the RBI's master directions titled 'Reserve Bank of India (Commercial Banks – Credit Cards and Debit Cards: Issuance and Conduct) Directions' dated November 28, 2025 amended from time to time, each card-issuer is required to have a well-documented Board approved policy for the issuance and conduct of Credit Cards

This comprehensive Policy aims to document the framework for issuance, conduct of Credit Card operations by the Bank, including Co-Branded Credit Cards, in consonance with the directions of the RBI from time to time [and good industry practices and procedures]. The policy also covers aspects related to the variants issued by the Bank underwriting standards that are internal to the Bank as a part of comprehensive guidance to the various in the Bank. Other regulations like NPA norms governed under various circulars of RBI are also applicable.

The Credit Card Business is conducted in compliance with the extant Regulatory guidelines and the Bank is committed to follow the prescribed standards of banking practices as detailed in the "Code of Bank's Commitment" to customers.

Card Product Details:

The credit card variants issued by the Bank shall be within the four types of Credit Cards permitted to be issued by the Bank notified Reserve Bank of India (Commercial Banks – Credit Cards and Debit Cards: Issuance and Conduct) Directions' dated November 28, 2025 updated from time to time:

- (a) Credit Cards issued to individuals;
- (b) Business Credit Cards to entities including Charge cards.
- (c) Corporate Credit Cards; and
- (d) Co-branded Credit Cards.

The Bank may issue business credit cards to business entities / individuals for business expenses. The business credit cards may also be issued as charge cards, corporate credit cards or by linking a credit facility such as overdraft / cash credit provided for business purpose as per the terms and conditions stipulated for the facility concerned.

It also offers credit cards through various form factors such as Physical credit cards(Plastic and Metal) and Virtual Credit Cards to customers subject to certain criteria. Credit Card sourcing is in line with the extant regulatory guidelines.

The bank provides the following credit card variants: Classic, Premium & Co-Brand and Super Premium Cards. All cards carry an accelerated Rewards/Cashback on spends, activation & milestone benefits and other card offerings towards lounge access & fuel-surcharge waiver as decided from time to time based on Marketing proposition of the Bank.

The bank provides the “Corporate Credit Card(s)” issued to specific employee/s of a corporate employer wherein the liability could rest with the corporate entity or the employee or jointly on both, as per the product design features”.

On issuing corporate credit cards, the responsibilities and liabilities of the corporate and its employees are clearly specified. The liability of the corporate/business entity shall form part of its assessed credits.

Business Cards issued to corporates (Purchase cards) allow designated employees/ officers to pay their supplier (for goods and services) centrally using the card.

All HDFC Bank Credit Cards issued are Contactless Cards which facilitate fast, convenient & secure payments. Contactless cards enablement is basis customer consent. HDFC Bank Credit Cards support Tokenization which is replacement of the cardholder’s Primary Account Number (PAN) with an alternate number, referred to as a token. Token number is a 16-digit unique number assigned by the franchiser/bank basis the active BIN ranges shared by the Bank.

All HDFC Bank credit card members can avail of up to 3 add-on cards where the limit on the primary credit card is shared with the add-on card members. Bank shall block a lost card immediately on being informed by the cardholder, card members are covered for lost card liability i.e., once a card member reports loss of card to HDFC Bank within 48 hours, the liability for any subsequent transaction on that card is not on the card member. Lost Card liability is applicable for all card variants.
